

Stemonine™

Description

Stemonine™ is an organic plant herbs distillation of Stemona collinsiae in Eucalyptus oil. It is smelly dark liquid which is used primarily as biologically Pest and Bio-Control for Plants.

Benefits of using Stemonine™

Stemonine™ is safe to use for organic crops where chemically pesticide and insecticide prohibited. Application with sprayer in upper and under part of the leaves could benefit from better protection. The absorption of Stemonine through skin of insect/worm will cause of respiratory failure. Although some of them may slower down in activity but finally it will be decease. This mechanism will take place within a couple of application time consecutively.

SPECIFICATIONS

Stemona collinsiae	40 % min
Eucalyptus oil	60 % min

STORAGE

- ❖ Keep in shade, cool & dry place within 1 year
- ❖ Use-up once open the bottle in 6 months is recommended.

Applications & Recommendation of Use:

- Dilution of water 50 cc for 20 liters
- Surfactant is recommended for better performance
- Application time is in late morning with personal safety equipment
- Ensuring all insect/worm sprayed over
- Spraying 2 times a week until all insects unnoticeable